NIKOLA TESLA – The Genius and Inventor

Nikola Tesla was one of the most important inventors of the 20th Century with over 700 world-wide patents to his name. He was born on the 10th July 1856 in today's Croatia as son of a Serbian orthodox priest. He studied physics in Graz, Vienna and Paris. He had been working in the U.S.A. first with Edison and then in his own laboratory in New York. Tesla died in 1943.

Among other things he became famous for his development of the alternating current and of a transformer for high frequency alternating currents with high voltage and small amperage (therapeutic application: Diathermy).

His most famous work was the tapping of energy and it's wireless transmission. His inventions would have opened countless sources of abundant and free energy. The industry of his times was not ready to finance his projects. Tesla's motivation was humanities wellbeing rather than his own financial gain.

Did you know, that Tesla also made the following inventions?

- radio
- remote control
- alternating current (AC)
- neon tubes
- radar locating
- bladeless turbine
- electron microscope
- wireless energy transmittance
- x-ray pictures without radiation
- and many, many other things which even today play an important part in our daily lives.

sizes and colors

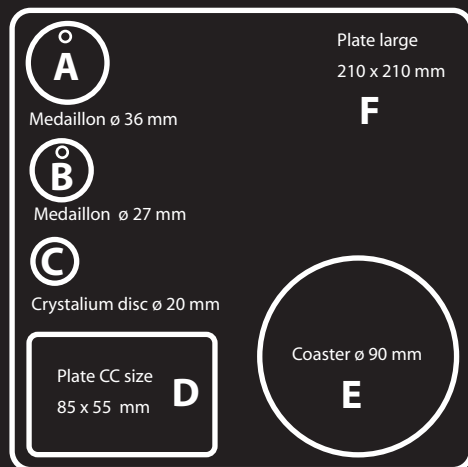

Strength of plate depends on size (larger = stronger)
There are seven colors available:
purple, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange, red.
The color has no influence on the strength of the plate's primary tachyon energy field but adds the specific frequency of each color .

All seven colors are available as complete sets for a discounted rate. Single colors are available separately.

The black crystallium discs for protection from EMF/EMR are available in 3 sizes only (C,D,F).
The crystallium discs for the handy are available in one size only (C) with 17 motifs or plain black.

Please follow the chart to the right to see the shape/size and color combinations available:

- A) 7 colors / Ying&Yang

elektrosmog (EMF/EMR)

Electrosmog in the environment caused by cellphones and antennas, high voltage power lines and household or office appliances can have a disturbing influence on any living organism. It is related to mood swings, depression, chronic fatigue, sleep disorders and various physical and psychosomatic disorders. Fortunately with our specially designed Crystallium discs you are given a powerful tool to prevent disharmonic field forces from sapping your life energy.

For the efficient harmonization of such disturbing fields and radiation we have developed the highly efficient Crystallium discs and plates. The Crystallium discs can be mounted on any wall or window facing the source of disturbance or it can be attached directly to the appliance emitting such fields. The plates are used to create a „bubble“ of harmonious frequency patterns and they can be placed below, on top or in the vicinity of a potential source of disturbance, such as your computer CPU and screen, TV, microwave oven (warning: never insert a plate into the microwave oven!), switch box or transformer. Crystallium plates and discs are especially helpful to cleanse and protect your sleeping space from EMF/EMR.

Stick one of the beautifully designed Crystallium discs on your cellphone and fit your cordless handset and base station with Crystallium discs or plates in order to harmonize the high levels of pulsed EM signals emitted by such devices.

some suggested applications

Apply plates of any size to aching body parts, on wounds, cuts, burns, on acupuncture points or on the chakra area. Carry them along with you throughout the day or treat yourself several times a day during shorter intervals. Note: The plates show different effects on different individuals. While some people hardly notice any sensation, others feel them quite strongly. Mild side effects can initially be caused due to onset of a detoxification process, but will usually subside after a short time. In case discomfort is felt, discontinue the use of the plate until you feel ok to reapply them. The plates also have shown very good results with plants and animals!

Keep a plate tucked into the pillow cover under your pillow. This has been reported helpful with insomnia as it often induced deep and relaxing sleep. You can also keep a plate in the pocket while attending exams, important meetings and when having a session with your dentist... Some pregnant women suffering from nausea have reported the plate's instant relieving action when placed on the stomach.

Energize food and beverages for a few minutes before consumption. You will often notice an improved taste after application. Especially acidic fruit like grapefruit, oranges or pineapple will suddenly taste sweeter. Allergy sufferers have reported that they could observe the allergic potential of certain foods diminish after a few days of placing allergy causing foods on the plate overnight prior to cooking. Keep your full shopping bag on a plate on returning home to energize all products at once. Keep a big plate in the fridge (middle shelf) in order to keep food fresher for longer and prevent spoilage, molds and bacterial overgrowth in the fridge space. Especially fruit kept on the plate usually stays fresh up to four times longer compared to „untreated“ fruit. (Not suited for meat, fish, dairy, eggs).

Try this: Keep a CC sized plate in your cigarette packet and notice a milder taste, diminished craving and lesser withdrawal pangs if you want to stop smoking. Still: your determination to kick the habit is essential - no results without resolve!

Energize water for plants and pets and see them do well! There are many more applications and the plates invite you to experiment and play!

SwissTESLA color Collection

Tesla plates are antennas for cosmic energy (tachyons) which relay information from the electromagnetic field that exists between the earth's surface and the ionosphere (Schumann field), to the biofield (aura) of living beings.

The effectiveness of the SwissTesla Energy Enhancers are primarily based on modification of the molecular structure of the aluminium plate through a process of anodisation. This process causes the SwissTesla plates and disks to resonate in tune with the fundamental frequencies of the universe.

The plates create a harmonizing field, positively affecting body and soul on an energetic level. They also show positive effects on energetic properties of food and drinking water as well as in the promotion of plant growth and yield.

Many people use SwissTesla Energy Enhancers to support physical healing in themselves or in their pets or carry one of the smaller plates or discs with them to maintain their personal energy levels throughout the day.

Accelerated self healing of the organism can often be observed, where the informational frequencies of the SwissTesla Energy Enhancers are used as a supportive means.

This correlates with the understanding of traditional healing systems, where presence of abundant life energy (Qi, Prana) is a sign of health and vitality and disease is caused by a blockage, a disturbance or a lack of this vital energy.

Every living organism has an intrinsic self healing mechanism - you just need to create the right conditions for it to function at its peak performance and to develop its real miraculous powers. The SwissTesla Energy Enhancers are a time proven and much appreciated tool for wellness which not only fits in your pocket but also your budget.
